

The treatment can be performed with the client in most positions so, for example, someone could be treated in a wheelchair if necessary.

What is the training like?

To be fully trained is not expensive. Hours of studying anatomy are not required.

Practice is the main ingredient for success. Many people feel confident using the Synergy Probes after just one training session. For those who choose to take all three modules, they may reach the full potential that the Synergy system can offer.

Who is it for?

This system is ideal for those seeking a simple way that does not involve in-depth studying.

Many people feel that they already have some ability in healing, but they do not know where to start their journey. For those people who have not yet found a path, let me show you the way.

For those who have found a path but would like to add to their portfolio, the Synergy Probe system is simple and very effective.

Those who already have talents and work in the healing world using alternative methods will be shown the basic Synergy Probe method and can further enhance their knowledge by attending all three workshop modules.

What your Synergy Day consists of:

Tony will explain how he found this way of healing and cover many case studies, allowing you to understand how powerful this method can be used by yourself in helping others and how you may wish to support your income using the system. Synergy Probe “Energy Days”

With Psychic Healer Tony Sargeant

Let Tony show you how you can bring energy back into harmony with this simple, easy-to-learn system for health, healing and personal development.

Discover how to balance the energy in the body for yourself, or for others.

The synergy probe system has been designed so that it can be used by practitioners at all levels.

www.mindbodymanagement.com

What is the Synergy Probe system?

It is a new energy balancing system that has been devised to quickly re-balance the whole body by stimulating four different points on the body using 'Synergy Probes'.

Synergy probes

Module One - The four main points lay at the ankle, wrist joints and major joints of the body where large bands of tendons wrap around the bones. Using these points, a connection is made to the energy lines that run through the whole body and the brain.

How does it work?

When the Synergy Probes are applied to the correct points using a gentle rocking motion, messages are sent through the network of meridians up to the brain, similar to sending Morse code.

The brain can then send back messages to the parts of the body that are out of balance.

The theory is that a damaged body-part closes down, so that energy passes around the affected area instead of through it. Because there is no energy flow through the area, the body is not able to repair itself. The body's memory can hold on to a damaged part over a long period and can even run into years if left without attention.

Within a few minutes you will learn how to find all these "closed down" areas that lack the necessary energy to keep the body in top health.

Once found, by using the Synergy Probes you will be able to re-start the natural energy fields within the body.

What happens next?

When the energy levels have been rebalanced you will notice an instant change. For example, higher energy levels will be felt as the energy starts to flow; cold 'closed' areas will become warm again.

The process will keep working over a period of three days until the energy system of the entire body flows more normally, even through damaged parts.

What can be helped?

Because the Synergy Probes work with energy, this system can help to treat any physical condition, because all physical ailments manifest as energy blockages.

Here is one example that amazed me in the early days of my systems-application:

A client suffering the early stages of MS took him 5 minutes to walk with a walking stick to my treatment room, (a maximum of 50 yards). He could not drive himself to the session because he could not use his right leg, which had almost no feeling in it. After I had treated him for one and a half hours, he walked out of my treatment room with his walking stick under his arm. He then continued life for 12 weeks with his leg being perfectly active. He returned after 12 weeks for a top-up.

For many cases, such as migraine, this system removes the problem completely in one treatment.

Testimonials

The Synergy Probes are used in several countries around the world with amazing results on many illnesses.

From my list of grateful clients and practitioners I have decided to add just one of the many testimonials... I received an e-mail from one of my new practitioners, asking me if he thought that the synergy system could help Millie, a 15 year old girl with a heart condition.

At the time she was waiting to go into hospital for heart surgery. Her health was poor and her energy levels low. Colin Stevens wrote:

I followed carefully your instructions, it was a profound experience. While working on her something happened on a spiritual level that had never happened to me before.

Millie was booked for a six hour operation. The surgeons needed only one and a half hours to operate on her. They said she was in a very strong physical and mental condition. Her mother never stops thanking me. Thank you for your guidance as always.

Over a period of a few months Millie's energy had improved to such a degree that she appeared to be an extremely healthy person, not someone waiting for a heart operation.

The synergy system had balanced her energy and made it stronger, thus making it easier to perform the heart operation.

Further development

After Millie's experience I found myself treating a variety of new health problems, and I was delighted with the results.

We have thousands of energy lines running throughout our bodies, and I discovered many more stimulation points to work on, such as knees, hips and elbows. I found that they responded and created better health with faster repair times.

The development of the system allowed an avalanche of extra health problems that I was able to repair.

"I hope you will come along to one of the Synergy Probe days."

Tony acknowledges the benefits of the numerous therapies in the world and does not state that his Synergy Probe is any better.

What happens in a Synergy Probe session?

In the Synergy Probe session, the patient remains fully clothed.
